

Mayor David Cline
Phone 217-234-4633
Fax 217-258-6435

David W. Cline was elected City Commissioner in May of 2005 and was then appointed Mayor in October 2007 after the sudden death of then Mayor Charles White. He is in charge of Public Affairs, is Liquor Commissioner for the City and represents Mattoon on various boards and commissions in and around the area.

Mayor Cline, a lifelong resident of the Mattoon area, began his career with the City of Mattoon in 1979 when he was employed as a Police Officer. He retired from the Police Department in 2004, attaining the rank of Captain and completing 25 years of service to the citizens of Mattoon.

Mayor Cline is an avid sports fan and motorcycle enthusiast. His wife Vicki is Membership Director for the Mattoon Area YMCA. The Clines have 3 children and 6 grandchildren.